McGuire delivers hand-crafted, durable design that feels naturally luxurious no matter the setting. Find McGuire furniture in the most world-renowned hospitality destinations around the globe.

Le Guanahani Resort St Barth, BL

Originally opened in 1986 and expanded in 1991, Le Guanahani is a haven of comfort and elegance in one of the world's most luxurious, yet casual settings. An authentic reflection of St. Barth, the hotel is an island destination for travelers looking for a balanced combination of relaxation and activity. McGuire furniture enhances the already pristine guest living spaces within Le Guanahani's 67 vibrantly hued guest cottages. Classic McGuire rattan furnishings become the focal point of the room by combining durable rawhide canning with elegant details that show off the unique nature of every piece. The Le Guanahani's approach to natural luxury marries effortlessly with McGuire's timeless values: design that creates welcomed experiences of true comfort and relaxation

The St. Regis Bal Harbour Miami, US

At the epicenter of Miami Beach style sits the St. Regis Bal Harbour Resort, recently awarded the coveted Forbes five-star and AAA five-diamond awards for hospitality. The peerless haven of oceanfront accommodation captures the attention of guests, from celebrities to discerning world travelers, who enjoy the St. Regis Bal Harbour as the ultimate escape. Celebrated for its gourmet offering within the most natural and casual setting, the hotel's Fresco Beach Bar & Grill features McGuire's sophisticated outdoor furnishings. The St. Regis and McGuire share a unique connection of time-honored brands with a modern sensibility, functional yet supremely comfortable offerings, and a commitment to turning every moment into an exceptional experience.

Ram's Gate Winery

Sonoma, US

Nestled in the beautiful California wine country sits Ram's Gate Winery, a stunning vineyard and tasting room. Constructed with sensitivity to the natural landscape, a nod to the historical relevance of old Carneros Valley, and a modern interpretation of the tasting room experience, the winery stands out as a luxury destination. Ram's Gate approached McGuire designer Orlando Diaz-Azcuy for his award-winning vision, known for marrying classic styles with a youthful spirit. The McGuire furnishings peppered throughout the property elevate the space and create a dramatic setting for guests visiting Ram's Gate to relax and appreciate the wine and their company in a memorable way.

Whitehall Hotel Chicago, US

The Whitehall Hotel combines the character of an old European boutique with all the modern comforts of a true luxury accommodation. Set in the heart of downtown Chicago on the Magnificent Mile, guests at the Whitehall find immediate escape from the urban hustle the moment they step into the hotel lounge. The dark wood paneling, marble floors, richly patterned carpets, shimmering chandeliers and bespoke artworks evoke sensations of welcome retreat: comfort, relaxation, and heritage. McGuire's Fretwork Lounge, created by design master Barbara Barry, takes center stage as a truly captivating piece, inspiring conversations as a classic representation of naturally luxurious design. As guests transition away from the fast-paced nature of the hotel's urban setting, the Fretwork Lounge creates opportunities to take pause and appreciate a truly one of a kind design.

Design Masters

McGuire's tradition of partnerships with internationally award-winning designers furthers the commitment to continuously evolve great design by carrying forward the values of high-quality natural materials, comfort and timeless style.

McGuire Designers

John McGuire

Inspired by the natural warmth and distinctiveness of the rattan vine, John developed techniques to bend and form the material into designs that spoke to a relaxed and refined way of living.

Elinor McGuire

With her hand in strategy, design, sourcing and business operations, Elinor set the stage for the McGuire legacy, working with John to create remarkable, enduring furniture and an indelible influence on quality interior design.

Steven Volpe

Bay Area native and friend of the McGuire family, Steven Volpe's collection demonstrates an evolution of intellectual and classic design reinterpreted for the 21st century.

Laura Kirar

Laura Kirar's design vision combines a passion for art history and a penchant for contemporary execution.

William Sofield

Bill Sofield defines the softer side of modern design within the most inviting and livable environments.

“Furniture crafted almost entirely by human hands, working with natural materials, is contemporary in spirit but reassuring and satisfying as only the natural and handmade can be.”

— John McGuire

McGuire Designers

Barbara Barry

Barbara Barry combines her trademark feminine sensibility with strong materials and classic shapes.

Thomas Pheasant

Thomas Pheasant marries innovative materials and techniques with natural materials to create an exceptional articulation of the McGuire vision.

Orlando Diaz-Azcuy

Orlando Diaz-Azcuy's eye for architectural space elements and reverence for the highest quality materials is reflected in each of his creations.
